Part two: A) Read the following passage then choose the best answer to the questions below: (2) points each

Everyday life can be full of stress. There are many possible causes, work or family problems, exams at school, traffic, or noise. This stress has many bad effects on your body and mind. It can make you unhappy and even ill. To reduce stress, psychologists say that the most important thing is not to get (angry 2) or upset about something. Instead you should try to laugh. If you can make a joke and laugh, you'll feel better. In fact, doctors say that laughter is good for your mental health. (It 3) makes your body stronger, so you are less likely to get sick. Another way to reduce stress is to do something you enjoy. It doesn't matter what activity you (choose 1). Some people relax by watching a movie, others by playing basketball or cooking a nice dinner. If you like chocolate, for example, eat a small piece when you feel stressed. As long as there are ways to get rid of stress, we should try to follow those ways, otherwise we will be the victims of it.
